The following is a Police Connect message.

Police are appealing for information and asking boat owners to take security precautions following a spate of marine equipment thefts in North Norfolk and Broadland over the last month.

A chart plotter and other electronics were stolen from a boat in Brundall Bay Marina, Riverside Estate, Norwich on Monday 1 June at 12pm to Tuesday 16 June at 3pm. The crime reference is 36/39411/20.

Between Tuesday 2 June at 8am and Tuesday 16 June at 10.04am a winch handle and winch from a boat trailer was stolen from Morston Quay, Quay Lane, Morston. The crime reference is 36/39252/20.

Two kayaks have been stolen in separate incidents. One was taken from moorings in Quay Lane at Morston, sometime before Tuesday 16 June at 10.32am 36/39261/20. A second theft of a kayak was reported from the dinghy park on the Quay, Blakeney, Holt, sometime between Saturday 13 June and Sunday 14 June. The crime reference is 36/39270/20.

Between Wednesday 15 January at midnight and Tuesday 16 June at 2.26pm, a boat trailer was stolen from Catfield Staithe, staithe Road, Great Yarmouth in Catfield. The crime reference is 36/39365/20.

PC Jason Pegden, said: "We would ask anyone who owns a boat or kayak to check their property if they haven't for a while and take precautions like marking property and taking photos so it can be identified by police if found or if it is being re-sold online."

Selecta DNA and DataTag are both Secure by Design approved.

Anyone with information on North Norfolk crimes can contact PC Jason Pegden and for Broadland crimes PC Paul Bassham on 101 quoting the relevant crime number listed. Alternatively contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.
