

ACLE FOOD BANK

Please note that there is a dedicated Food Bank in Acle for anyone in and around Acle (which includes Halvergate and Tunstall) who is having difficulties with being able to provide food for themselves or for their families.

For anyone in need, please phone the number below and you will be called back.

Food Boxes can be delivered direct to your home.

07507 397227

This is a dedicated phone number which you can phone or text. All your details will be treated in confidence.

They also have a Facebook Page where you can also private message them.

If you would like to be a volunteer with deliveries, please contact them.
